RULE III - COMMITTEES, COMPOSITIONS, POWERS, FUNCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

Section 4. The Sangguniang Panlungsod shall have regular committees which shall consider, investigate, hold public hearings or otherwise take action on matters or subjects within the scope of their functions and other matters referred to them. For purposes of these rules, the following provisions shall apply:

- A. Committee Composition - A committee shall be composed of a Chairperson, a Vice-Chairperson, at least six (6) members and the Chairperson of the Committee on Ordinances, Rules, Privileges and Legal Matters. The Sangguniang Panlungsod on its first regular session immediately following the election of its members shall select the chairperson and vice chairperson of regular committees either by appointment or election. The members of each committee shall be nominated by the Chairperson thereof in consultation and confirmation of the Sangguniang Panlungsod.

The Presiding Officer shall be ex-officio member of all regular standing committees. He may be designated by the body as chairperson of Ad Hoc or Special Committee provided that the purpose or task for which the committee created does not involve legislative matter or policy making.

A Sangguniang Panlungsod Member may become a chairperson of not more than two (2) committees.

- B. Term of Office - The chairperson and the members of the regular committees shall serve for three (3) years unless sooner removed by a 2/3 vote of all the members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod. Thereupon, a new chairperson or member shall be elected or appointed as the case may be.
- C. Committee Procedure - The Committee shall function in the following manner:

1. The Chairperson of the Committee shall from time to time, convene the committee to a meeting. Provided that, if the Chairperson fails or refuses or neglects to convene such meetings, the committee may, upon written request of a majority of the members thereof, call for and convene such meetings. Provided further that, if a proposed legislative measure has been included in the Agenda of a committee for three times and such measure has not been acted upon by the committee for one reason or another, except the non-appearance of the author, the same shall be considered approved by the committee concerned.
2. Whenever a proposed measure, resolution or ordinance covers subject matters falling within the jurisdiction of more than one (1) committee, the measure shall be referred to the Committees within whose the jurisdiction the principal matter falls. The Presiding Officer or any member of the Sangguniang Panlungsod shall move for the designation of the main committee. The Chairperson of the Committee to which the proposed measure was also referred shall automatically become a member of the main committee insofar as the deliberation of the measure is concerned. Provided however, that the main committee which requires jurisdiction on any measure shall be mainly responsible for submitting a report to the Sanggunian incorporating therein the appropriate recommendations of the other committees.
3. The Committee hearing shall be held at the Legislative Building or in other place on any day at the discretion of the Chair.

4. The Committees shall determine the frequency of their meetings or hearing, provided that they meet at least once a month. A majority of all the Members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. Five (5) days before the scheduled meeting/hearing, written notice thereof shall be given to all the Members specifying therein the subject matter and the name/s of the resource persons invited to the said meeting/hearing.
5. In the deliberation and consideration of any matter in the Committee, the Committee may call any person or persons to appear in such committee meetings and request his/her opinions, views and comments on the matter under consideration or concerns which he/she was invited to appear.
6. All proposed ordinances and/or resolutions referred to the Committee for study, investigations and recommendations shall be considered in the Committee meetings and only such ordinances and/or resolutions which have been approved by the Committee shall be reported to the Sangguniang Panlungsod for further deliberation and consideration. Provided however, that such report submitted to the Sanggunian must be accompanied by the Minutes of the meeting/hearing of the Committee that adopted them and legal opinion, if there is any. When a Committee submits a report, the Members thereof shall be presumed to have concurred in the report, and shall be precluded from opposing the same, unless they have entered their objection thereto during the Committee meeting/hearing.
7. During the final deliberation of the Committee, no person or persons shall be allowed in the meeting except the members thereof and such members of the Council as may be necessary or expedient to facilitate the performance of its functions.
8. All questions before the Committee shall require a majority vote of the Members for their approval. Even in the absence of the Chair, a Committee Report which was already included in the Order of Business, may also be considered and discussed during session.
9. Whenever vacancy in the Chairmanship occurs or is declared to exist in any of the committees, the same shall be filled through the nomination by the Chairperson of the Committee on Ordinances, Rules, Privileges and Legal Matters, concurred upon by majority of the Members present, there being a quorum in the Sanggunian.
10. No Committee except the Committee on Rules may meet while the Sanggunian is in plenary session, but only after securing special permission from the Presiding Officer.

Section 6. Ad Hoc Committee - The Sangguniang Panlungsod may from time to time create ad- hoc committees for special purposes and which shall cease as soon as their reports have been submitted to the Sangguniang Panlungsod. Ad hoc committees created shall be independent of the regular committees but the procedures thereof shall be determined by the same rules governing committees. Special or Ad hoc committees may also be created upon the initiative of the Presiding Officer or any member subject to the affirmative votes of a majority of members present, there being a quorum. Special committee is composed of the whole body/assembly where a matter/issue is deliberated and decided upon as a Committee of the Whole. Such ad hoc committees, but not limited to, are as follows:

A. COMMITTEE ON GOOD GOVERNANCE, PUBLIC ETHICS AND ACCOUNTABILITY - All matters pertaining to the conduct, rights, privileges, safety, dignity, integrity and reputation of the Sangguniang Panlungsod. Handles all matters or questions pertaining to or connected with conduct and ethical standards and public accountabilities of officials and employees of the local government.

B. COMMITTEE ON PERSONNEL AFFAIRS AND APPOINTMENTS - All matters pertaining to city employees welfare, plantilla positions, personnel appointments and promotions, and such other activities that could affect the development and management of the City workforce. Basically, acts as the Personnel Selection Board of the City Government.

Section 7. Report of Committees; Discharge. - The different committees shall report to the Sangguniang Panlungsod any matter referred to them for study, comment and recommendations within sixty (60) days from receipt thereof. In case of failure of a committee to render such report, a majority of the Sangguniang Panlungsod may, by written petition, discharge the Committee, unless there is a valid, legal and reasonable ground for the delay and/or its extension, after which the matter concerned shall be submitted for disposition. In case a majority of the members of any particular committee dissent and/or object to the matter, the same shall be considered as being laid on the table. Provided, that upon written petition of the majority of the members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod, the matter which was laid on the table may be re-submitted to the Sangguniang Panlungsod for final decision.

RULE IV - MEETINGS OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD AND PROCEDURE

Section 8. Regular and Special Sessions. - The regular sessions of the Sangguniang Panlungsod of Imus shall be held every Monday except when if any Monday happens to be a holiday, the regular session shall be held on the next working day. All regular sessions shall start at 9:00 AM at the Sangguniang Panlungsod Session Hall thru either face-to-face, teleconference and video conference. The time of the regular session may be changed under extra-ordinary circumstance and notice shall be communicated a day before the scheduled session.

The sessions of the Sangguniang Panlungsod shall be held open to the public except when compelled to be held behind closed doors by reason of security or other valid reasons and upon affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod present.

Filipino and English shall be used as a medium of communication during session of the Sangguniang Panlungsod.

A regular session may be held in various barangays of the City, the date and venue of such regular session to be scheduled and set by the members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod and the Secretary to the Sangguniang Panlungsod.

When public interest so demands, special sessions may be requested by the Local Chief Executive or by a majority of the members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod. The date, time, place and subject matter of the meeting shall be specified in the call for a special session. The notice for special session shall be given 24-hours prior to the scheduled session and the Calendar of Business shall be indicated/attached in the notice. Unless otherwise concurred in by two-thirds (2/3) of the Sangguniang Panlungsod Members present, there being a quorum, no other matters may be considered at a special session, except those stated in the notice.

No two (2) sessions, regular or special, shall be held in a single day.

The Sanggunian shall keep a journal and record of its proceedings that may be published upon resolution of the Sanggunian.

Section 9. Absences and Punctuality. - All members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod are hereby enjoined to be regular and punctual in their attendance in the meetings.

All tardiness and absences for three (3) consecutive instances and two (2) absences in a month shall be dealt with accordingly by the Presiding Officer.

However, members who will fail to attend the session of the Sangguniang Palungsod in the performance of their duties as public officials shall be excused and the member shall be enlisted under the members absent but shall be labelled as "On Official Business". The Presiding Officer shall decide whether the Sangguniang Panlungsod Member shall be considered excused or "On Official Business".

The following shall be the basis for the consideration of absences:

- If the member attends seminar, convention, conference forum with prior notice of the Local Chief Executive and the City Vice Mayor.
- If the member attends to invitations from organizations accredited by the Union of Local Authorities of the Philippines (ULAP).
- If the member represents the Local Government of Imus on official capacity.

A Sangguniang Panlungsod Member is considered present when he/she is around at the time the roll is called. If he/she arrives after the roll call, he/she can be considered present only after the proper recognition of the Presiding Officer.

While the session is in progress, after the roll call, an Sangguniang Panlungsod Member who wishes to leave the session hall shall ask permission from the Presiding Officer.

Section 10. Electronic devices during session. - All cellular phones, tablets, and other electronic devices of all persons in the session hall, including the gallery area, shall be turned off or put on silent mode during session or committee meeting in order to avoid disturbance, distraction and disruption of the same.

Section 11. Attire. - All members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod must wear during session Barong Tagalog, office barong or long sleeves shirts with necktie and not with ripped jeans or denims (maong) for male and formal dress for female. Wearing of slippers, sandals and rubber shoes are not allowed. Members who are not dressed accordingly shall be deprived of the right to participate in the regular session.

Wearing of casual attire of t-shirts, maong and rubber shoes and casual dress for female are allowed on special sessions, committee meetings, public hearing and when the regular session will be held outside of the session hall.

Section 12. Quorum. A quorum shall be nine (9) members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod and shall be determined on the basis of physical presence.

Whenever a question of quorum is raised by any member, the Presiding Officer shall immediately order a roll call and thereafter announce the result thereof. In the absence of a quorum, after a roll call, the Presiding Officer may declare a recess and compel the attendance of absent members.

Proposed resolutions and ordinances shall be signed by the author or authors and filed with the Secretary to the Sangguniang Panlungsod for inclusion in the order of business. Only those who signed as authors and co-authors shall be considered as such; provided, that other members may be considered only as sponsors or co-sponsors if manifested on the floor. All matters endorsed by the Mayor to the Sanggunian and petition and other communication received from the residents of the City shall likewise be transmitted by the Secretary to the Presiding Officer for inclusion in the order of business.

B. First Reading. - All proposed measures shall be calendared for the first time and shall consist only in the reading of its title. After the reading thereof, it shall be referred to the proper committee/s for study, comment and recommendation. No debate shall be allowed at this stage. However, proposed resolutions whose nature are request for financial assistance, grants/aid from government or private agencies/organizations need not go through the three-reading principle, hence, can be considered on the first reading upon approval of the majority of the Sangguniang Panlungsod Members present, there being a quorum.

C. Committee Reports. - After a proposed measure is referred to the appropriate committee, the committee shall submit an official written account of its action taken relative to a particular task assigned to it, together with its findings, conclusion and corresponding recommendations.

The contents of the committee report shall be:

1. Name of reporting committee
2. Brief statement of the subject matter referred to it and the action taken on it including information gathered during the conduct of committee hearings and other relevant information
3. Findings or conclusion
4. Recommendations (either to file it or to calendar it for second reading)
5. Names and signatures of concurring members, dissenting members and abstaining members
6. Appendices (minutes of the committee meetings, committee hearings, etc.)

D. Second Reading. - After a proposed measure is reported favorably by the Committee concerned, it shall be calendared for second reading. Provided, that the same shall have been posted in the bulletin boards of the Sangguniang Panlungsod for three (3) consecutive days prior thereto.

During the second reading, the author or sponsor of the proposed measure shall deliver his/her sponsorship speech and then make the necessary motion. After the motion has been duly seconded, the Presiding Officer shall restate the motion and open the period for debate or discussion. Motion to close debate shall require majority vote of all members present.

When the period of discussion or debate has been closed, the Presiding Officer shall then announce the period of amendments. After the period for amendments has been closed, the Sangguniang Panlungsod shall take final action on the proposed measure.

E. Third Reading. - All ordinances and resolutions which have been approved by the Sangguniang Panlungsod shall again be presented by the Secretary to the Sangguniang Panlungsod in their final form for purposes of confirmation not later than the 2nd session day immediately following the day of their approval. Ordinance shall be considered enacted and resolutions adopted on third reading.

Section 16. Procedure in the Deliberation and Enactment of Annual Executive and Supplemental Budget of the City. - Upon the start of the Budget process, during the preparation of the Department/Office Budget, prior to its submission to the City Budget Officer, the Department/Office Head shall coordinate with the Committee Chairperson in-charge of finance, budget and appropriation of the Sangguniang Panlungsod to pre-evaluate the proposed budget.

Upon submission by the City Mayor of the budget proposal on or before October 15 to the Sangguniang Panlungsod, the Department/Office Head shall consult with the Chairperson of the Committee on Finance, Budget and Appropriation of the Sangguniang Panlungsod under whose purview their respective departments belong in order to prepare for the Committee budget hearings and the Sangguniang Panlungsod budget sessions en banc for second reading.

Once approved, the Annual or Supplemental Budget can be modified or amended by the Sangguniang Panlungsod which is the sole authority to perform such acts and functions. Any other person who modifies said budgets without Sangguniang Panlungsod approval shall be liable for usurpation of power and falsification of public documents.

Section 17. Rules and Procedures on Debates. - For purposes of decorum and to maintain a system of orderly proceedings, the following rules shall be observed:

- a. During debates, a member shall confine himself to the question before the Council. He/She shall observe proper decorum and avoid personalities during the entire proceedings.
- b. In referring to another member, the latter shall always to be referred to by official title.
- c. For purposes of obtaining the floor, a member shall rise or raise his/her hand and address the Presiding Officer, "Honorable Presiding Officer" or "Honorable Chairperson". A member can do so only after the member who has the floor yields the same.
- d. The Presiding Officer shall be the only authority to recognize any member by announcing the latter's name as a sign of recognition that such member has the floor.
- e. When two or more members rise at the same time, the member whose name is first called by the Presiding Officer is recognized and shall be entitled to the floor. Succeeding order of members to have the floor next will be announced by the Presiding Officer.
- f. Any member sponsoring any measure under consideration may open and close debate where a general debate has been ordered thereon. If the debate extends beyond the time limit prescribed by the Chair without the debate being closed, he/she shall be entitled to additional thirty (30) minutes to close.
- g. Words desired to be excepted and stricken from the records by any member shall be stated aloud by the Presiding Officer; and the member who uttered the same shall not be held to answer for nor be subject to censure by the Sangguniang Panlungsod; if in further debate or another business intervened and that such words desired to be excepted were used repeatedly by the member uttering the same and such words are offensive to a member or other person's sensibilities, the member who uttered the same shall be subject to censure by the Sangguniang Panlungsod through majority vote.
- h. When the Sangguniang Panlungsod is in session, no member shall pass between another who has the floor and the Presiding Officer.
- i. No member shall walk out or cross the session hall when the Presiding Officer is addressing the Sangguniang Panlungsod.

All motions to adjourn or to suspend the session or to hold executive session shall be resolved without debate.

A question laid on the table must be taken up not later than the next regular session, otherwise the question dies.

Section 21. Privileged Motions or Privileged Questions. - The following shall be considered as privileged motions:

- a. Motion to adjourn
- b. Motion to recess
- c. Raise a question of privilege, and
- d. Call for the order of the day

All the foregoing motions shall be undebatable and shall have precedence in their consideration according to the above-cited order.

RULE V - INTERNAL GOVERNMENT

Section 22. Unparliamentary Acts and Words, Sanctions. - All acts, words and declarations which personally offend any person or public institution shall be declared unparliamentary. No member of the Sangguniang Panlungsod, under any circumstance and during any debate, shall use offensive or improper language or innuendos against other members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod or public officer or institution. Any member of the Sangguniang Panlungsod who utters any unparliamentary words or commits an unparliamentary deed may be sanctioned as follows:

- a. The Presiding Officer of the Council shall motu proprio, or at the instance of another member call him to order. The erring member shall immediately take his seat, if he has the floor. In case a point of order is raised and sustained by the Presiding Officer, said member shall not continue speaking without the consent of the body upon motion made and duly seconded.
- b. When a member is called to order for using improper or offensive words during a debate, upon motion made by another member, such words shall be ordered stricken from the records.
- c. In addition to the foregoing, depending on the seriousness of the violation committed by a member, upon proper motion, the Presiding Officer may reprimand the erring member and such reprimand shall be inserted into the records.
- d. In case of very serious or grave offense, the body by two thirds (2/3) vote, may impose such penalty as may be warranted by the offense committed, without prejudice to the institution of the proper administrative and/or criminal action as the circumstances may warrant.

Section 23. Questions of Privilege. - Questions relating to the rights and privileges of the Sangguniang Panlungsod or any of its members shall take precedence over all motions except those relating to adjournment and recess. The following shall constitute questions of privilege:

- a. Any member may interrupt another member's speech when required by urgency and immediate action is called for as when a speech which is being read cannot be heard.
- b. Questions of personal privilege relating to a member of the Sangguniang Panlungsod or relating to charges against the character which, if true will disqualify him from becoming a member of the Sangguniang Panlungsod.

- e. Those relating to the organization of the Sangguniang Panlungsod.
- f. Those relating to the punishment of a member for disorderly conduct or other offense.
- g. Those relating to the accuracy of published reports.

Section 24. Point of Order. - All points of order may be raised at any time and such questions shall be resolved by the Presiding Officer immediately. The decision of the Presiding Officer may be appealed to the Sangguniang Panlungsod and a majority vote of members present shall be sufficient to confirm or reverse the decision made.

Section 25. Privilege Speech. - Any member desiring to deliver a privilege speech may, after informing and with the recognition the Presiding Officer, speak for not more than thirty (30) minutes; Provided, that if more than one member registers their desire to deliver a privilege speech, each speaker shall be limited to only fifteen (15) minutes and not more than two (2) privilege speeches may be delivered in one session. In case more than two members registers their intention to deliver a privilege speech, the same may be taken up in the next succeeding session of the Sangguniang Panlungsod. No motion may be presented and/or entertained in connection with the subject matter touched upon in the privilege speech.

Section 26. Appearance or Report of Department Heads and Other Officials. - Any Department Head or any City Official or Employee, when the public interest so requires or in aid of the legislation function of the Sangguniang Panlungsod, may be summoned or asked to report by the Sangguniang Panlungsod or by any of the regular or ad-hoc committee to appear and/or report on any matter pertaining to his department or office. The Department Head or public official or employee called to appear or report may answer verbally or in writing the questions propounded to him.

RULE VI - EXECUTIVE SESSIONS

Section 27. The executive sessions of the Sangguniang Panlungsod shall be held behind closed doors. An executive session may be held when requested by a member who shall explain his/her reasons for the request and the same is duly seconded. The public shall be excluded from the session hall. The minutes of the proceedings in an executive session shall be recorded in a separate book and shall be treated as confidential. The Presiding Officer and the members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod as well as officials or persons who took part in executive session are strictly prohibited from divulging or revealing any of the confidential matters taken up in the session and all actuations which have taken place therein. The restriction and ban secrecy may be lifted by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the Sangguniang Panlungsod; any member who violates the prohibition of the secrecy may, by two thirds (2/3) vote of the Sangguniang Panlungsod be excluded from attending executive sessions. If the violation is committed by City Official, he shall be dealt with administratively and charged with conduct unbecoming of a public official; If the violation is committed by a private person, he shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of an ordinance which may be enacted by the Sangguniang Panlungsod.

Section 28. The Rules of the Sangguniang Panlungsod may be suspended upon motion for the purpose, duly seconded and the number of votes required is attained.

Section 29. When making said motion, the specific purpose/s for said suspension shall be stated and no other matters shall be considered other than that/those for which the rules were suspended.

Attendance of the following circumstances may justify the suspension of the rules:

- a. Time is of the essence
- b. The denial of the motion shall:
 1. Cause irreparable damage to life, limb or property;
 2. Gravely hampers the delivery of basic services; or
 3. Adversely affect peace and order or security.

Section 30. The number of votes required in order to suspend the Rules of the Sangguniang Panlungsod shall be three-fourth (3/4) vote of the members present, there being a quorum. If no objection is raised, it shall be presumed that a unanimous vote/consent of the members was taken. Otherwise, the number of votes required in this section shall be strictly complied with. Violation of the foregoing rules will render the fruits thereof null and void.

RULE VIII - ADJUDICATORY OR QUASI-JUDICIAL POWER OF THE SANGGUNIAN

Section 31. Adjudicatory or Quasi-Judicial Power is the power of the Sanggunian to hear, try and determine administrative cases filed against erring local officials within a supervised unit pursuant to Section 60 to 68 of the Local Government Code of 1991 (R.A. 7160). The Sangguniang Panlungsod shall personally conduct the hearing and take full control of the proceedings, examine the parties and their witnesses to satisfy themselves with respect to the matters at issue and may allow the parties or their counsel to ask question only for the purpose of clarifying points of law or fact involved in the case. They shall limit the presentation of evidence or matters relevant to the issue before them and necessary for a just and speedy disposition of the case.

RULE IX - SUPPLEMENTARY RULES

Section 32. In the absence of specific provisions in these rules applicable to a given situation, the pertinent provisions of the rules governing the proceedings of the Senate of the Philippines shall be made applicable which shall be deemed supplementary to these rules. In the absence of specific rules or provisions in the Rules of both the Sangguniang Panlungsod and the Senate, the Robert's Rules of Order shall govern; however, the Council may adopt such rules to govern the situation not herein contemplated consistent with the provisions of the 1991 Local Government Code and in keeping with the tenets of fair play and justice.
